2023 Market Rabbit SAE Budget & Contract

Rabbit SAE Contract

Your son/daughter has shown interest in raising Market Rabbits as an SAE Project for their Agriculture Education Course. Please note that this project includes a pen of 3 meat rabbits. They have attended an informational meeting that has given them directions as to where this project will lead to, and how it may benefit them. This project is one of great value in terms of developing a sense of responsibility, time management, accounting & marketing skills, and small livestock husbandry (care). An estimated budget is outlined below to let you know what is expected monetarily.

If you plan on proceeding with the project students must complete the online application process by Friday, March 24th 2023. After the deadline a list of no more than 15 students selected to show will be posted by Monday, March 26th 2023. After that a signed contract and payment are due by Friday, March 31st 2023.

Small Animal Unit Rules

Keeping your animal at the SMHS Small Animal Unit is a privilege that comes with many responsibilities. Students must be an enrolled in a SMHS Agriculture Course to use the small animal unit. In general, all students need to Respect People and Property, the specifics of this are listed below. The rules below must be followed by all students, and we will follow a three strikes rule. Violation of any rules may be considered a strike. Students get three strikes; on the fourth strike their animal must be removed from the unit within 72 hours, or it will be taken to a sales yard and sold at market price.

Feeding

- Each student will sign up for a feeding time and must show up to assigned feeding time. If the student is unable to attend the scheduled feeding the student must notify the agriculture teacher and find a replacement to take their spot.
- Feed and water will be in the unit for the students to use to feed the animals
- Students are responsible for feeding animal twice a day during posted time.
 - Times will vary during holidays.
- Students must lock the barn door when they are done.
